Contents

List of figures —— IX

1 The life of the Bronze Age —— 1
The Bronze Age as an object of study —— 1
Coda —— 5

2 The life of people —— 7
Introduction —— 7
Who were the people of the Bronze Age? —— 10
Archaeogenetics —— 11
Language —— 17
Health and longevity —— 19
Food and diet —— 22
Identities and occupations —— 24
Traders and travellers —— 30
Status and role —— 34
The end of life —— 35

3 The life of objects —— 40
Object biographies —— 41
Objects of personal use —— 51
Destruction and fragmentation —— 57
Objects and persons —— 62
Coda —— 63

4 The Life of Places —— 65
Space to place —— 65
Changing places —— 68
Villages and houses —— 75
Village plans —— 75
Houses —— 82
The life of a house —— 88

5 The life of societies —— 91
Movement of people and artefacts —— 92
Personpower and population —— 92
Settlement size —— 95

Cemetery size as an indicator of population — 97
Interactions, peaceful and warlike — 98
Forts and territories — 112
Type of warfare — 112
The wider world: interconnections and systems — 115
Society and economy — 117
World Systems: a(nother) critique — 119
Coda — 120

6 The afterlife of the Bronze Age — 122
The Bronze Age as ancestor to the Iron Age — 124

Bibliography — 127

Index — 150